Published by the Press Publishing Company.

TUESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 12.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD (Including Postage):

VOL 30.....NO. 10,311

Entered at the Post-Office at New York as second class

WOBLD UPTOWN OFFICE-1207 BROADWAY, between 31st and 32d sts., New York.

BROOELYN-359 FULTON ST. HARLEM-News
Department, 150 East 125TH ST.; Advertisements at 237 East 115TH ST. PHILADELPHIA, PA.—LEDGER BUILDING, 112 SOUTH ST.
WASHINGTON, 310 14TH ST. BRANCH OFFICES

WASHINGTON-610 14TH ST. LONDON OFFICE-32 COCKSPUR ST., TRAFALGAR

A DIBGRACEFUL PERFORMANCE.

"Class spirit," so called, has led to pretty pass among the students of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute at Troy. After a riot which transcended all the traditions of Donnybrook Fair undergraduates were seen wending their ways along the streets with heads cracked and bleeding.

People of common intelligence, not expert in the higher learning, are willing to countenance a deal of brutality in these latter days, when it comes in the cloak of college athletics. Your university football gentleman may punch and butt and kick and pummel and throttle his adversary, provided he makes proper pretense that it was accidental and shuns the watchful eye of the referee. A lot of latitude must be allowed for the effervescence of boyish spirit. But when candidates for the degree of A.

B. in an American college take to bruising and meiming one another, and rioting like Comsuches in the public streets of a decent town, shades of Erasmus, to what straits has poor old scholarship come? These boys are citizens-most of them voters. They enjoy the protection of the law. They should be forced to obey it, to live within it, and suffer for its violation the same penalty as the 'longshoreman, who, by the way, is the superior of many a collegian,

SUNOL

Results are the best things to judge by. Accomplishment is the modern test of worth. And any one who believes true merit as messured in accomplishment is not reckoned at its proper value and does not fetch its proper price is off in his reckoning. There is a rich market for the best.

Sunol, Senator LELAND STANFORD's fast filly, with the marvellous three-year-old record of 2.10%, passed yesterday into the hands of Robert Bonner for a consideration, the amount of which though a secret, is declared by Mr. Bonnes to be the biggest sum ever paid for a mare.

It is right she should come to New York the Mecca of talent.

Welcome to Sunol. Congratulations to her owner. He has found a worthy stable compenion to Maud S., and may be her better. Time will tell.

CALL THEM BACK.

Lament, lament in your glum silence, ye of Gotham, for the street music that is no more, the cadences, and solfeggios, and tooriloorals, and "Home, Sweet Home," and National airs, and marches, and waltz music, that used to set the poor man's little ones circling round in childrsh dance upon the dirty pavement. No more is the step vast deal of melody for a penny.

Call the banished musicians back. They don't dally with "Tannhauser" overtures nor flounder among classic symphonies, but they made music that the tenements loved to Call them back. All these poor people can't pay to hear Thomas or the German

THE TIME IS PASSING.

Chicago has loaded its guns and is now ready to assault Congress with a view to get ting the World's Fair. In the bill which the Windy City has tramed for presentation at the coming session is the primary proposition that Chicago doesn't want a dollar of loan or appropriation from the Government for World's Fair purposes,

It is the money that talks now, And Ney York is yet lingering in the neighborhood of the three-million mark. That will never, never do. Open your pocketbooks, you Crosuses, right away, if you don't want this show ruined by sending it to Chicago.

WATCH OUT. Now there is a new trouble upon HARRIson's mind-how to keep his first message to Congress from getting into the newspapers before it has been read in the Houses.

He distrusts the printer, does BEN, as he distrusts every human being save R. Harrison, and proposes to have a female typewriter perform the work of transcribing his composition Watch out, Ben! some one will steal you if you don't take care.

A stopper should be put upon Editor Schevitch, the Anarchist oracle. He talks too much with his mouth. This Schevitch stood in Cooper Union last night and in the presence of 5,000 men and women manited the American Flag. He should be taken in hand and taught that free speech does not mean the right to incite treason and lawless-

Make him talk United States or shut him

Nobody can get a drink at Vice-President Monros's " salo n" in the Shoreham, unless he sits at a table. That pro ably will entitle the customer to the enjoyable privilege of tipping the waiter, as it does in most other places.

JOHN HATES, FULLIVAN'S old trainer, was held in $1,000 bail in Jenerson Market Police Court yesterday, for stealing $500. Will Mr. BULLIVAN demean himself by speaking to so common a person hereafter?

DOMINICE MCCAFFREY keeps pegging away at SULLIVAN. trying to get the big fellow into the ring with him. Well, he ought to succaed. It's a pity to see a man aching for a ticking, and not able to get it.

How appropriate to wind up the Pan-American peace and partnership congress in the City of Brotherly Love, SPOTLETS.

A Window-Glass Trust is to be organized. Its otive is transparent.

The turkey that's at present living And strutting round so proud and say Will soon be slaughtered for Thanksziving And stuffed with sage, etclera.

- Boston Courier,

There is no rest for Catskill Mountain watchmen. Now that the Summer guests are some the bears be-gin their annoying calls at the hotel doors.

Having no Canada at hand, embarrassed Chinese tea nerchants have taken refuge from their creditors in the Kuchan monasteries.

Japanese police officials are going to inspect New Fork's police system. Will the Lord High Execu-tioner adopt electrocution in place of his deadly 'snickersnee!"

Not a golden egg from a goose, but gold quarts from a duck's crop is a Jamestown man's fortune. The duck had been digging in a gravel bank on the nan's farm. Now the farmer is digging An old, rotted gunstock, with rusty barrel attached, s human skeleton and some pieces of clothins. So much comes to light in Monroe county. Ps., of a murder mystery of fifteen years ago A wild-eyed emigrant who arrived yesterday proclaimed himself the original Adam. He found him self sadly out of date and out of fashion, and will be

A Washington thief killed time effectually in Jail. He robbed a clock of its mainspring and made a saw, with which he cut his prison bars.

UNFAIR DISCRIMINATION Tommy-Mamma, I think papa might take me wif him,
Mother-Your paps does not take other boys.
Mother-Your paps does not take other boys.
Tommy-Yes, he does. I heard idn tell Mr. Brown that he was out wif the boys les night.—Troy Press.

Connecticut has a wickedest town. It is Monroe, with 1,000 inhabitants, a murder record of ten in fifty years and the possession of fifty divorced or separated couples.

FOIBLES OF THE FAIR.

At the coming "afternoons" society will drink loving cup " this Winter instead of ecu-nor. Rouse punch, or knee-weakening maraschino cream. For this blood-warming, wit-stirring beverage, a tall, slender chocolate pot sort of just in silver or cut crystal is used, from which the silver-runned punch cups are filled. To brew a loving cup use two tablespoonfuls of orange-flower water, two glasses of cognacone quart of champaone, two tablespoonfuls of augar. Stand in refriserator one hour, with cover on. Just before serving add three drops of commercial essence of ambergris and one bottle of seltzer water. Orna ment with sprays of orange flowers or syrings flower and leaves. Never let flowers remain longer than ten or fifteen minutes in wines to be flavored by them.

For big receptions where wine and cake constitute e refreshment, sunshine and angel cakes are cut into slices and each one individually iced with orange, lemon, vanilla or pistache cream.

Black or groom's cake is no longer used at wedding breakfasts, and the days of the bride's loaf are numbered. Verily the world moves on. The bridal kiss vanished long ago, now the bridal loaf is doomed. Who knows but the wedding of the future will be

One of the popular fancy cakes is the alumet, a de ous bit of delicate brown mouth-melting pastry that has no more body to it than a confection kiss. Diamonds, cubes, petits fours, painiers, brochettes and small potatoes, all of the dollar-a-pound sort and little short of gastronomic conundrums, are nevertheless as indispensable to the service of ice cream as a fork or a spoon.

The biscuit glaces of walnut, macaroon-marror and maraschine are sent to table in paper cases and sprinkled with grated caramel.

Asparagus sticks of fancy ice-cream are bunched rith long-stemmed rose buds, tied with colored ribbons and serve to bother the average man beyond expression, for nine out of a dozen will invariably set a spoonful of rose petals and a thorn in his mouth long before the cool green cream touches his tourne. Rum and brandy cherries planted in an ice-tart or a rube of chocolate ice-cream is the last blow at prohibition. These spirited fruits are of the real cherrybounce pattern, and a pair will keep a very strong woman from getting on her feet at once. Individual creams, with three rum-chersies, sell at $3 a dozen. Some other fancies just brought out by the caterer are Little Lord Fauntleroy, ducklings in nests of spun sugar, safe full of matches, eggs floating in wine sauce, ships in a sea of maraschine cream, rose and buds with natural leaves and true-to-life banaquickened, the heart softened, by all that has, potatoes and marrons. For children's parties and family spreads there are champages bottles. ratermelons, cabbage-heads, bombs, slippers, loaves of bread, pineapples, fishes, deer, horses, elephants, swans, a Neptune, cartwheels, boats, owls, turkeys s, each containing sixteen portions and valned at $6 apiece.

> The real gourmet cats by candlelight because, a Roqueplen said, nothing is uglier than a sauce seen in sunlight. And for this reason and several others the epicurean avoids picules, breakfast parties,

POLITICAL ECHOES.

John B. McKean, Police Justice Jake Patterson's Police Court Clerk, it is said, will be made Clerk of the Court of Special Sessions when Tammany Hall gets control of the Board of Folice Justices, the latter part of the present month. Although appointed by a Republican Police Justice Mr. McKean is a stanci Tammanyite and hails from the Twenty-second Asembly District.

The faithful of Tammany are raising their voices a protest because it is asserted that a recent convert. Arthur D. Williams, is slated to succeed Henry Bischoff, jr., as Attorney for the Collection of Ar rears of Fersonal Taxes.

Police Commissioner John R. Voorhis is left to orwanize a political faction of his own or to join Taumany Hall. The County Democrats have repudiated

Now it is the Republican County Committee which is to be disciplined. The National Committee has taken the matter in hand, it is said. With prope management Col. Quay thinks that the big Demo cratic majority in this county can be reduced to 40,000, and Buildozer John I. Davenport is alleged to be the man selected to harmonize the silk-stocking and short-hair elements of the party in this city. "A vote is a vote, no matter who casts it," is the sage conclusion of Matthew Stanley Quay.

ATHLETES IN REPOSE

A. A. Jordan, the champion weight-thrower, is a light man for this form of sport. He scales just 155 pounds.

slow as an athlete. He takes a leading part in the athletics of the club. He is quite good at the jumps. President John Andrews, of the Star Athletic Club. knows the time of day pretty well, and it just the while-awake sort of man needed for the position. He has a penchant for offering valuable watches for

W. H. Struse is a hustler and a hurdler. He is an authority on all things athletic. He is a member of the Staten Island Athletic Club.

A. B. George is numbered among the best runner of this country and Furland at all the distances. He has won more "points" this season than any other member of the Man! attan Athletic Club, which is proud to enroll him under its banner.

WORLDLINGS.

Basil B. Gordon, to whom a great deal of the credit of the Democratic success in Virginia is due, is a young man of about thirty. For the past ten years he has been prominent in Virginia politics, and at present he is a State Fenator.

Amelia B. Edwards, the famous Egyptologist, is a Ph. D., an LL. D. and in 1887 received from Colunbia College the honorary degree of Doctor of Letters. Secretary Beyard has six children-four girls and his household since her mother's death. Thomas Bayerd, jr., graduates from Yale this year and his younger brother is in a preparatory school. The small at republic in the world is the little hamlet of Goust, in the Pyrenees. Its inhabitants number only 125, and every member of the community has a share in making its laws,

TIES TO HOLD HIM.

Allurements Which Chain the Married Man to His Hearthstone.

Charms of Wife More Lasting Than Those of Sweetheart.

Home Secrets Revealed to Readers of "The Evening World."

No Slackening in the Competition for the Double Eagle Prize.

Conditions of the Contest. A Gold Double Eagle, "Evening World" prize for the best recipe for keeping a husband at home Competitors must address their recipes to ' Editor," giving their name and address, not for publication where not derived. The recipe must not be more than 200 words long, and must be teritten on one side of the paper only

He Will Not Go Out. To the E-Nier.

RECIPE Be ready to great him

With kissen so sweet.

That he il lou my declare

'I'll not go to the meet—

"But stay with Cecile, And the bauses so :air, In my own cosy home." (Of course this is rare.)

Be pleasant and cheerful In whatever you do, And make him just think There's no woman like you.

Let his friends to your home (Say two times a week) Be asked to play each: e, Chees, poker, bezique. Then by way of diversion
Just go to the gray,
And when it is over
Hie homeward and stay.

Then what need he to sorrow, Fave even a care? Since his wife he can borrow To go on a "tare."

M. TRAVERSE This Is One Man's View

To the Editor: The ladies are rather hard on us poor fellows We are described as greedy animals, whom nothing short of a good meal and a woman who forgets all woman'y dignity and fawns and waits on him will keep in his cage of an even-ing. I, for one, love my home and do not think a good woman needs any recipe to keep her husband home but this: "Be true to yourself, never forget your self-respect and love and respect your husband." HOMEBODY.

Catch the Right Man and Don't Preach. First catch a man civilized enough to recognize the rights and sympathize with the feelings of others. With this foundation the husband will willingly remain at home, if the wife is neat, a good cook, or, with servants, properly oversees a good cook; is prompt with meals, considerate of the husband's teclings and prejudices, while showing inde; endence enough to cause him to continue to recognize her individuality and prejudices.

continue to recognize the preindices.

If he smokes she should allow him to smoke in the parlor; if he drinks, use all her powers of persuasion to induce him to drink only at home, or where she is or might be.

She should inform herself so that she can converse intelligently with him about his social, and have been and have been interests. converse intelligently with him about his social, political and thusness interests.

Above all show that she loves him and desires his society more than all others. Never fail to meet and part with a kiss, and don't preach.

Mrs. J. L., Sanford, Fia.

Thirty Years of Honoymoon

The honeymoon should never wane. This advice is applicable to both. The woman who has tact enough to understand this and follow it will never be found among deserted, lonely and unhappy wives. A man wants honest, mode-taffection; if he receives it he will return have drawn in the lottery of married

If you have drawn in the lottery of married life such a prize as a warm, loying man, carefully cherish him, for you are life t above the majority of women. It is easier for a wife to study how to retain her husband at home than it is to werry how to get him back after the habit of going out is formed.

The great secret of happy homes is contentiment, neatness, sunlight, carefulness, mutual confidence, love of each other's society, modest actions on both sides, a cheerful hearing of each other's birdens and pining together at all times.

Thirty Years Married.

Davenport, Ia,

Davenport, Ia.

Study Him, Then influence Him.

To the Edwar.

I have been married four years and my husband never leaves me alone if he can possibly help it, not because I ask him not to, but as far as I know because he seems to think no one elve's company half as good.

I am a good walker, dance and love amuse ments of all kinds. I never object to his talk-ing to or praising other women, for I can always manage to please him best because I have studied all his tastes and finter myself that I know him better than he knows himself. I try to be to my husband a "bon camarade," an iso far I am pleased to say it has kept him at home or in my coursely whencer he is not at home or in my company whenever he is not at work. If any wife will only take the trouble tq study her husband's nature she can make him do anything for either his weai or woe.

MATHIELDE.

Her Marriage Not a Fallure.

My husband always spends his evenings at home. We always pray to God every night to bless our home, to watch over us and to lead us in the right paths; and my husband never spent an evening from home since we were married, except absolutely necessary.

If some of the lastics who read your paper would try my plan, they would find that marriage is not a failure after all.

Lily.

Don't Bave Secrets from Him To the Editor One way to keep husbands at home evenings is to have no secrets from one another. Salay, She Learned This, Courting,

After he has eaten his supper put the hands of the clock to an early hour and tell bim he had better lie down for a few minutes. As soon as he has fallen askeep put the hands to a late hour, and then when he awakes he will find it is too late to go out. MINNIE. A Good Many Doubt This.

The best way to keep a husband home even ings is for the wife to go away herself.

Hold Oue. You Keep the Other. To the Edstor If your husband goes out and leaves you let not your thoughts turn to a recipe for keeping of your thoughts turn to a recipe for holding his AMOR.

Reciprocity in Privileges.

In the Editor I do not propose to keep my husband home evenings when he wishes to go out, it being the only time he has to see his itiends. I believe in equality. I am out in the afternoon; I am healthy, and it is very seldom he wishes to go out and leave me.

Aleu must munice with men to retain their manhood and know what is going on around them. I have the most implicit confidence in my husband. I grant him all the privileges of a lief by using Canter's Little Liven Pills 25c. ...

Keeps Him in Order, Too.

I know a better method for keeping my husband at home than the "hot-water" process. I keep my house in order. I keep everything in order. I keep my husband home evenings by the home ties of order.

For Poker-Playing Husbands.

To the Editor When my husband comes home he gets his accustomed kiss, then he gets his supper, and then while I clear the supper table he reads me the evening paper. When I am finished he gets the cards, and we have a good game of poker.

That is my method of keeping my husband at home. Some ladies may be sheeked at what I do, but this is the only my of keeping my husband from going to the club.

G. S.

"Boost" When He Climbs. To the Editor :

In glancing over the recipes I do not find one so far that begins at the beginning. The wife must not be the wife of a man whose tastes are dis-imilar in any marked degree to her own. and that can best be determined by careful study and that can best be determined by careful study previous to marriage. After that event she must always be ready to "boost" when he climbs: to enjoy what he enjoys; to share bravely the ill and the good fortune that comes: to make him the big brother, as she is the big sister, of the bitle ones: to have nothing in the house too good to eat or wear or use; to heartly welcome his friends, and so become a true missionary by letting others son gampses of that rare "corner of paradise," a mutually and strongly built home.

I have proved this recipe and would be willing proved this recipe and would be willing to risk it again.

Perpetual Echoes of Courtship Days.

The best way to keep a husband at home is to be and to act as in the courtship days, greeting him with pleasure and love, entertaining him with those little arts and devices which were so pleasing and attractive to him in his more youthful days, Mrs. C. E. Free, Mineola, N. Y.

To Be Given in Large Doses

Recipe: Cheerfulness, 8 parts; pleasure, 12 parts; unselfishness, 10 parts; pleasant suroundings, 20 parts; spirit of true love, 50 parts.

Administer unsparingly at all times.

HARLES."

Hold His Love and Respect. To the Editor :

Conform to his tastes as far as you can. A wife knows what her husband likes best. Let him see you think his ideas are perfect, no mat- lay dying in the crowded and recking tenements ter sometimes if they are not. Love and absolute trust are necessary to keep him by you. Above all, be intellectual and able to discuss Above all, be intellectual and able to discuss his favorite topics. Let him see you are intelligent in speaking to others.

Convince him, by your acts, dress, conversation and department that you are will-bred and as good if not superior to all others of our fair sex. A wife should be truthfin, sincere, independent and virtuous. A void deceit. It is the forerunner of unbappiness.

Wives, adhere to above rules, and I promise if a hisband truiv loves his wife he will not leave her alone evenings except when required. Mine never does.

A Loved Wife.

Kisses Count for but Little.

In the Editor I have been married near six years, and durng that time my husband never met me with a kiss when he came home from work, and I never expected it, because I don't believe in all that foolishness. And we live i appily all the same. because, in my opinion, it is not kisses and sweet words that will make a home happy; it is the coay appearance of his home when he returns at night. Have a cleerful fire, and the wife respectable looking, and I should think that is all necessary for keeping a husband at home.

Mrs. A. Rene.

Dou't Tease Him

It depends on the man and the woman, you know! From the right kind of wives few good husbands will go: At least not enough to give cause for complaint,

To hold a man in keep him free from restraint. For 'hoys will be boys,' and they take to the street. While girls in their homes look for comfort com-When he first speaks of going don't raise a big row. Let him cheerfully out with an unruffled brow. For if then you detain him by show of displeas-He'll be dull all that evening, and far from a treasure.

But when he returns let him gracefully see
You have missed him a little, but don't Chat pleasantly of your evening's employment, And carelessy mention some hit of enjoyment Hell regret having missed, but don't tell him so.

Just drop in the seed and leave it to grow,
If restless he seems ask him out for a walk.
But if quietly reading don't tease him with talk,
Keep your dear, precious chums in the evening

away
If they can't talk of aught but their toilet array,
He's then not worth keeping if he will not stay.
Miss Nancy. Perfection of Conjugal Cooking

Cook bim right. Many good husbands are spoiled in the cooking; some women go about it as if their husbands were bladders, and blow them up; others keep them constantly in hot water, while others still freeze them by conlucal coldness. Some smother them in hatred, content on and variance, and some keep them content on and variance, and some keep them in nickle all their lives. These women always serve them my with tongue rates.

Now, it cannot be supposed that husbands will be tender and good if managed in this way. But they are, on the contrary, very delicious when managed as follows:

Get a large jar called the broof carefulness (which all good wive have on hand, place your husband in tand set him near the fire of conjugal love; let the tree be pretty but, but especially let it be clear; above all let the heat be constant. Cover him over with silection, kindness and subjection. Garnish with mo lest, becoming familiarity and the space of pleasantry, and if you and kisses and other confections let them be accompanied with a sufficient portion of secrecy, mixed with ruddene and moderation.

Mrs. W. W. McK.,

Stamford, Conn.

STOLEN RHYMES.

What She Wanted She didn't want a corner lot way out in Kansas City. She didn't want a Torkish rug; she didn't think then She don't want a thread the profession of for waters:
She hadn't any use for oil, for chromos or for waters:
She stuck her nose up at the dresses worn by Jones's daughters.

the just detested diamonds, and thought jewelry She had no love for ornaments, Foundation or Bul-She wouldn't drive in cosch and four, although she might have had 'etc.

But trudied along the street, as did her great forefaller, Adam.

She didn't like the drama, and she thought the ballet She didn't like the weather cold, nor yet so very She didn ; care for household work, and had no love She let her mother darn her hose, for she deteated Fulfilled Its Musion. Frown-Sequa-d's "elixir of life" is reported to have cted as a speedy and takin poison on an old mentucky newro... Transfer # 16 care.

Begro... Transfer # 16 care.

Ensage by his concection to produce Ensage by his concection to produce Eternol His. and thus wrim death diseard.

In him, who directly use his win from place?

This area herry took the close, and went This area herry took the close, and went This area herry took the close and went This area herry took the close and went This area herry took the close and the colone and since his eartily days at last a c spent.

Where can he be but in the life eternal?

An Injunction. Be not so vain, thou Turkey Cobbler, hold Not up to high it y head, with pride so puffed! Even now the chest nuis rive with which cold And stark in death, full soon thou will be suffed.

—Harper's Educar.

husband. His ideas are mine, and so it has been all through my sixteen years of married MAKE THEM HAPPY life, A WIFE AND MOTHER.

"The Evening World " Starts a Subscription for Christmas Trees for the Poor.

And Heads the List with a $100 Contribution.

The Little Folks of the Tenements to Have One Happy Day.

A Beautiful Charlty in Which Everybody Should Join,

RRISTMAS will dawn all the brighter for the | it be?

good that has marked good that its career.

the bables this Summer and who saw, too late, the power there was in a few pennies best used for a good purpose, will want to give something this time. The children of the rich, to whom Santa Claus comes smiling under toppling loads every Surrentitions Photographing of the Wife of Christmas, will feel a pang of sympathy when they learn that there are thousands and thousands of little boys and girls in New York to whom Santa Claus is a myth, a mere empty sound, and whose Christmas will be cheerless now, as it has been before-who will have no toys or candies, no cakes or turkeys-who may, indeed, be perishing for want of a crust of bread, unless Christian hearts and Christian phia News, purses are opened to save them; and the children of luxury and the children of comfort will shed tiny years and say it is too bad, and many of them will give of their share of the day's treasures to help brighten the Christmas of the children of the poor. Everybody that has a breast penetrable by the attention from passers by and provoked the comment that the wife of the himister must have been a belle in her own country, and give something. Fathers and mothers of fortunate little one will look into the joy-lit depths of their pretty pet's eyes, and, thinking of the bleak homes of other children, will feel compelled to send an gentle easts y that springs from charity will offering to THE EVENING WORLD'S Christmas-Tree Fund. Parents whose offspring has been claimed by death will give in the name of the white angel that was once their delight. Man and woman, of whatever sphere in life for the sins of any one.

poor children.

list with a donation of $100. man or woman or boy or girl within The Even No World's glorious constituency to place a dollar or a dime to the credit of this novel and inspiring charity? There will be Christmas trees in New York City and in Brooklyn. There will be conveniently placed and will be dressed and taken charge of by committees appointed for the purpose. The largest trees that can be obtained will be had. They will be loaded down with toys and ornaments, and brilliastly illuminated. In their full Christmas-Day splender they will make a perfect fairy speciable for the exultant and eager youngsters who will gather beneath their branches. Children of twelve years and under will be entitled to enjoy the benefits of THE EVENING WOBLD'S Christmas Tree Fond Every child, in addition to the treat of behold ing most gorgeons Christmas trees, will receive. Christmas-bag that will contain toys and can dies and in numerable other good things. Children who have toys of which they have tired can send them to THE EVENING WORLD for the Christmas trees. Clothing for children will also be accepted. Donations from shopkeeper. of caps, hoods, mitts, nubias, neck-comforts of any articles useful for boys or girls of twelve years and under will be gratefully accepted All will be acknowledged. The name of every ubscriber to the Christmas-Tree Fund will be printed in Tun Evening Would, The Christmas-Tree charity is now in the hands of the people of New York. The columns of THE EVENTAG WORLD are open to them. All that remains is for the people to so what they can, and they should start in with the idea of making poor children's Christmas trees as big a thing as Christmas itself.

AN HERRESS OF MILLIONS.

Fortune Hunters Will Besiege This Beautitul Beile from thicago.

doubtedly cut the widest swath in society She didn't care for isms, and she never wrote a letter To the papers telling how she'd try to make the Whole world better:
She lived in Massachusetts, she was freekled o'er with ism,
And all on earth she wanted was a marriageable man.

Pinnder.

This Winter, and who will be followed with nost per ister cy by sk lful and accomplished fortune hunters, is Miss Mary Leiter, the daughter of L. Z. Leiter, of Chicago, says a New York letter to the Philadelphia Press. New York letter to the Philadelphia Press.
Miss Letter is a tall, slender g ri, who has a vivacious and attractive manner, and dress es in exquisite taste. She is only twenty years of age and accounted very beautiful. She has spent a season or so in Wastengton, made a very bribant success at Newport this past Summer season, and the Letters, it is now unders o d, have t ken a house in New York. They have all the froncy necessary to carry nd colonel They have an the money here sary to carry out any social plans which the ambitions daughter may have in view. Mr. Letter is the retired partner of Flaid Leiter & Co., of Chicago and it is believed that the $6,000,000 with which he retired from that firm has been increased by judicious invest-ments in Wall street. He is now building an minense structure in Chicago to cost $2,000,000.

MONELL'S TEETHING CORDIAL is a benefit to bables and a blessing to mothers. 25 cents

"THE CANDIDATE."

The sentimental interest of "David Garrick" was exchanged for the laughter-provoking situations of "The Candidate," at Palmer's Theatre last night, and Charles Wyndham appealed to his friends from the comedy pedestal upon which he has stood so often and so convincingly. "The Camildate" is an adapta-tion of "Le Depute de Bombignac," rendered into English, and infused with the breath of English politics by Justin McCarthy, M. P. I am glad that the M. P. wasn't forgotten on the programmes, for it is really at the root of Mr. McCarthy's work. There are to many political allusions and opinions, that at times it looks as though the admirable Justin had made extracts from his own " History of Our Times." The audience at Palmer's understood the spirit that reignet in Lord Oldacres's household, Every American audience would not understand this spirit. I could see that Wyndham expected roars of laughter from Baffin's speech: have been elected, but-but-but as a Home-Ruler, ' It fell comparatively flat. The absurdity of this Oldacres being elected us a Home-Buler would send 'Arry in Loudon into convolsions of laughter, but the immensity of the sitnation was not fully grasped here. Why should

"The Candidate" is, however, apart from its politics very clever and amusing. The dialogue intends to fill the day is brisk and intelligent; some of the characters admirably drawn. The story is as follows: little ones who other- | Lord Oldgeres has a mother-ir-law, and a wife;

His perplexity was extremely funny, and the The people who gave ease and grace which he brought to the part were very much in evidence. George Giddens was an amusing Baffin, while William Blakely as the thousands of helpless and pailed-faced lit- Barnabas Goodeve, a sort of Pecksniff and Wigtie darlings of mothers' breaking hearts that gins rolled into one, gave an excellent impersonation. Miss Ffolliott l'aget as the Dowager -will feel the flush of a new benediction steal-ing over their spirits as they give again.

Lady Osterley was very dignified and bive-blooded, and Miss Mary Moore as Lady Dorothy The ewho read of the marvellous work done was very pretty and charming. "The Candiwith The Evening Worke's Sick Eaby Fund, date" is wholesome, interesting and faultiessly ALAN DALE. presented.

ONE PRETTY CHINESE LADY.

the Chinese Minister at Washington. I was lucky enough the other day to catch a glimpse of the new Chinese Minister's wife as she sat at the window in the south front of the Legation house on Dupont circle, looking pensively out upon the street and park, says a Washing on correspondent of the Philadel-

Not only that, but setive work brought an accomplished artist upon the scene in time to sketch the lady in one of the prettiest poses, with her dainty hand up to ber head, and s mirror resting upon the window ledge close The picture was one which attracted much that it is a great pity she cannot go into the society of the American Capital and convince all beholders that China has produced at least One pretty waman As the wife of a Minister of China this little woman has little more liberty than a convict of the galleys, and is already known in the neighborood of the Legation, which is the o'd house commonly called Stewart Castle, as "the prisoner of the castle."

Man and woman, of whatever sphere in life they may be, will give for the sake of innecent nor to go shooping or to mix with the world childhood that should not be permitted to suffer in any manner. The story that she rebelled for the sins of any one. All classes and all ages can feel and appreciate the sweet influence of the Christmas charity, and what each will not miss, when massed in the general contribution wil make a fund of surprising proportions capable of lighting the bearts and stradiating the eyes of thousands of the brack and stradiating the eyes of thousands of the class of the brack and stradiating the eyes of thousands of the class of the brack and stradiating the eyes of thousands of the class of the brack of the brack of the benches till the gather and strake. She has never dered show so much independence of her stein husband's antistake. She has never dered show so much independence of her stein husband's antistake. She has never dered show so much independence of her stein husband's an instake. She has never dered show so much independence of her stein husband's antistake. She has never dered show so much independence of her stein husband's antistake. She has never dered show so much independence of her stein husband's antistake. She has never dered show so much independence of her stein husband's antistake. She has never dered show so much independence of her stein husband's antistake. She has never dered show so much independence of her stein husband's antistake. She has never dered show so much independence of her stein husband's antistake. She has never dered show so much independence of her stein husband's antistake.

RED TAPE IN RAILROADING.

Circuitous Route of an Order to Turn Down a Seat in a Couch. "Talk about red tane in railroading! I got taugled up in it while in New York," remarked State Attorney Mitchell to an In-diamapolis News reporter. " We took a train on a little railroad to one of the Summer resorts and Mrs. Mitchell, feeling ill, I asked the brakeman to turn one of the seats for us. He said he would like to accommodate me, but I would have to speak to the conductor. I speke to the conductor and be declared that he would be deighted to accommodate me, but I would have to get an order from the Superinendent.

and got an order to turn down the seat. I gave the order to the conductor, the conductor passed it over to the brakeman and the brakeman turned the seat."

BOUCICAULT GROWING OLD.

auce, says a New York writer in the Washington Post. He looks quite feeble and complains of beart trouble, although I believe that is nothing new. He has been marked for his affections of the heart for rather a long time.

His Appearance Greatly Charged from that of Even Three Years Ago.

His hair and skin are both very white, and his step is slow; but he still carries himself erect and gracefully; his dark eyes are exressive and i right, and mis voice is as sweet as of yore. Still, it seems hardly postible look at him now, to believe that he is The millionaire's daughter who will un- same man who three years ago personated his ta orite buoyant Irish characters in Shaughraun" and "The Jut."

> He Could Swim. [From the Boston Budget.] Tommy-Mr. Smith, can you swim?

Clara (impatiently -Tommy, leave the room, on are annoying Mr. Smith. 'Oh, that question does not annoy me. Miss Heartease. Yes, Tommy, I can swim. Why do Yoll ash?"
Cause I heard Clara tell sister Kate she was going to throw you overboard."

Ringing Noises
In the ears, sometimes a roaring, busing sound, or snapping like the report of a pistol, are caused by caerb, that exceedingly disagreeable and very common disease. Loss of smell or hearing also results from ca tarrh. Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, is

Try Hood's Sarsaparilla Sold by all druggists. $1 air for $5. Prepared by C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, which causes and promotes this disease.

THAT TERRIBLE WEAKNESS.

so Many Women Are Faint, Weak, Tired. Nervous and Exhausted. Women are great sufferers from aerrousness, weaks nersons prostration and debitty. Thousands of grils droop and languish in the close, confined atmosphere of shops, factories or offices, and hundreds of thousands wear out their nerve force and power in household carea, family bereavements and responsibilities and work which never ends. Here lies the great strain upon the nervous system of women. Here is the cause why so many women con plain of being weak, nervous, tired and ex-little ones who otherwise would not exterisine any of its multiphased joys.

Lord Oldscree has a mother-ir-law, and a wife; one any of its multiphased joys.

It will provide Christmas trees for the poor children of New York and Brooklyn, and it will be assisted in the beautiful and far-reaching charity by the no. It is beautiful and far-reaching charity by the no. It is beautiful and far-reaching charity by the noncertail citizens of the metropolis, who have so generously sustained it in every mission for the doing and diffusion of good that has marked it tearer.

Lord Oldscree has a mother-ir-law, and a wife; one and a wife one can you to do do up to London to have a good up to London to have a member from North hampton. He sends his accretary, Baffin, to do this; permits him to use and Brooklyn, and it will be assisted in the beautiful and far-reaching charity by the no. It is a subject to be a subject of the pame of ford Oldscres, who gets back at the same time, the awful news that he has been cleated as a Home-linier. Baffin has also spant 1700 of Lord Oldscres's money on a fair Arabella, who sends him a photograph. There are many complications are into from them.

Wynilam was felicitons as ever as Oldscres. His perplexity was extremely funny, and the care into one save themselves to do them. housted. cannot stop work : there remain many duties yet to be done, and there is no one save themselves to do them. They must work, but it follows as surely as the day folows the night that they must receive from some curreies or the human machine will soon cause to re> aterative is Dr. Greene's Nervora. No remedy in the world is so sere to bring back the bloom and color to the wan and sailed cheeks, the brilliancy to the bollow and baggard eyes, the lightness and elasticity to the weak and ceary step, the strength and vitality to the unstrong, shattered and wormout nerves. It is the greatest of all uterine tonics and regulators and cures all female weakness and disease. It is purely vegetable and barmless and can be procured at any druggist's for Dr. Greene, the specialist in the cure of chronic and nervous diseases, of 35 West 14th st. New York, can be consulted free of charge, personally or by

OUR UNPARALLELED ARRAY!!

Purchasers are invited to examine the extraordinary inducements offered in artistically upholstered PARLOR SUITS.

Our assortment of povelties now on exhibition sur sasses anything ever before shown. Prices Exceedingly Attractive.

BRUNER & *

* MOORE 6

41 · 43 · 6 45 W. 14 "ST

PARISIAN BARRER SHOPS. Quaint Signs and Uncomfortable Chairs Their Distinguishing Features.

Long ago a royal decree compelled barbers and pairdressers to have at their door a white The Corean ladies rebelled against the laws of the realm and went shopping and sight-seeing within a donation of $100.

Who will be the next? Who will be the first within a donation of $100.

Who will be the next? Who will be the first but China and Corea are different countries.

sign purposes, says a Paris letter to the New Or cans Pacagane They are of oval shape, and a small piece is chipped out at one end. This is intended to show that the basin will fit the neck under the chin.

But nowadays there are no such basins inside Freuch barbers' shop. You must wash the lather off your own face when Figaro has finished shaving and enting you. Then, if you want your hair dressed, you get back into the chair and such uncomfortable men the chair and such uncomfortable chairs as they are too—again, and the fellow recommences.

There are some hairdressers who are not barb rs, but all bar ers are hairdressers, and most of them are also wig-makers. They put some very queer signs over their shop doors sometimes.

There is one man up by the College of

There is one man up by the College of France who has an oil painting outside his trem ses which represents a boatem hanging by his hair to a large tree while his borse is galloping away in the distance; and below the following words are written: "If

LAWRENCE BARRETT'S AFFLICTION.

The glandular swelling on either side of the neck from which Lawrence Barrett suffered last season, and which induced him to go abroad this Summer and consult an eminent specialist, is increasing at such a rate as to give serious alarm to his friends, says the Chicago Journal, 1 hough the eminent trage-dian himself laughs at their tears.

when on the state the affliction is clearly at parent to the ak d eye, and the opinion prevails in the atrical circles that unless the niment yields to medical trea ment the tracedian may not be seen on the boards next see.

Farmer-On the contrary, she is pale and delikit-like. Osah, ef that woman was strong! dunno what work she couldn't do.

Mr. Byer-Those shoes that I got for my little boy just a week ago to-night are worn out-bosse is galloping away in the distance; and below the following words are written: "If he had worn one of our wigs, this misfortune would not have happened him."

A barber of my neighborhood has a sign which reads: "Shaving done here to-day for money, and to-morrow for nothing." This "to-morrow "that never come and which the evening before is so often promised, is it not the most bitters reasmet all the illusions. I saw Bouc cault at the Madison Square reof life that we are acquainted with? cently and was shocked by his aged appear-

> An Ailment of the Neck Which May Cut Short His Singe Career.

He is extremely sensitive, however, on the subject, and when on the street envelops his neck from his ears down in a thick white silk multier. when on the sage the affliction is clearly

If She Was Strong. Listener (to farmer praising his wife)-She must be a very robust woman, Hawbuck-

Knew a tiood Thing-

a peculiarly successful remedy for catarrh, which it sures by eradicating from the blood the impurity Mr. shoemann-Weil.
"I went another pair just like 'em. Never knew boys' shoes to wear so long in my life."